

Cries of Anguish Stories of Hope: A Lenten Study on the Worldwide Struggle to end Violence Against Women

Find Out More

Lent: February 17—April 3, 2010

Join in the Discussion

Date:

Location:

*The World Council of Churches,
the World Student Christian
Federation and the World
YWCA invite you to participate in this global study.*

Come join us for our Lenten Study “Cries of Anguish, Stories of Hope: A Global Struggle to end Violence against Women.” The World Council of Churches, the World Student Christian Federation and the World YWCA have joined together to create a Lenten Study that empowers people through sharing videos about women around the world who are working to overcome violence. Hear stories from around the world, including India, Colombia, Democratic Republic of Congo, South Africa, Uzbekistan and from nearer to home. You can see the video and learn more at <http://.women.overcomingviolence.org>

- Violence affects women everywhere.
- What does the Bible say?
- What am I doing?
- How can I learn more?

<http://women..overcomingviolence.org>